Welcome to Skellig Michael World Heritage Site

Skellig Michael is a wilderness site and a designated Nature Reserve. The site presents a unique landscape and visitors must take care at all times.

A visit to the monastery will entail a climb on 618 steps, ascending over 600 ft. (180 metres). It is a demanding climb and any person with health issues should consider carefully their own physical limitations before exploring this part of the site.

Visitors must stay on the recognised pathways at all times.

	The opening season for the monastic site is restricted to the advertised period. At all other times the site is unmanned and visits are prohibited		Steep gradient on the steps
	Children must be strictly supervised at all times		Uneven steps
	Beware of falling rocks		Steps slippery when wet
			Stay on the path at all times
